A collection of beautiful, melodic songs by one of the greatest storytellers of our time. 15 MP3 Songs

URBAN/R&B: Philly Soul, BLUES: Carolina Beach / Shag Details: O.C. SMITH BIO Grammy award nominee O.C. Smith, described as the "Most Romantic storyteller," was the lead singer for the Count Basie Orchestra before signing with CBS Records. O.C.'s career has spawned over 20 nationally charted singles, including the Grammy-winning song "Little Green Apples. After CBS, O.C. united with Charles Wallert, who wrote and produced the title track as well as the album for "Dreams Come True" that returned O.C. to the national charts. The next venture for O.C. and Charles was the "Whatcha Gonna Do" album, resulting in three nationally charted singles for a total of 40 weeks. This album gave us the all time Beach Music classic, Brenda, which remained number 1 for 2 years. The same album also gave us Beach Music hits, Youre My First, My Last My Everything, Spark Of Love. Additional hits such as The Best Out Of Me, After All Is Said And Done, among others, established O.C. as a Beach Music Superstar. O.C.s success with Brenda expanded a greater national awareness of Beach Music both with the general public and the recording industry. Nominated for 6 Awards at the Third Beach Music Awards, O.C. captured 5. O.C was the much beloved pastor and founder of The City Of Angels Church in Los Angeles where he reached out to touch people with his music and sermons for 16 years. One of O.C.s final recordings, Save The Last Dance For Me reached the number one position on the Rhythm n Beach Top 40 Charts. Governor Jim Hodges proclaimed June 21st, 2002, O.C. Smith Day in the State of South Carolina. The celebration of this day was a tremendous success and will be an annual event coordinated by Beach Music legends, The Embers. O.C. was posthumously elected to the Carolina Beach Music Hall of fame in November , 2002. A true Hall OF Fame man! O.C. will be missed, but his music and his contributions to life will last forever.
