If Kurt Cobain put it in Johnny Cash and Jack Black was watching and playing a cello, the result would sound kind of like jeb, but with less mess. Parental Advisory 16 MP3 Songs ROCK: Grunge, ROCK: Hard Rock Details: 4 Stars in the ADN Tone Deaf Color Blind was reviewed in the Anchorage Daily News 8 Section March 25,2005 and got 4 of 5 eight balls! The reviewer somehow thinks we are homophobic though....If she and you only knew! Tone Deaf Color Blind is their first full length release, following the "Pre-revolutionary Taste Test" ep, now out of print. They have opened for 36 Crazy Fists in front over 1500 people, and continually draw 300 people to their shows around Alaska. This CD has every member of the band playing a variety of instruments, from the bass, guitar, and drums, to mandolin, banjo, keyboard, harmonica, and more. JEB is.... Beau Bodnar - GUITAR, VOCALS, mandolin Erik Braund - DRUMS, guitar, bass, cello, vocals Jordan Cash - BASS, vocals, guitar, harmonica This CD was recorded by Drummer / Producer Erik Braund at his Resound Recording Studio in 2004 (resoundrecording.com). It squeezes in at exactly 74 minutes; in fact, a bunch of material had to be cut. You could say JEB got quite anxious to release as much as possible, after two years of having not much at all released.
