Kelly has recently recorded as a member of the Babbie Mason 2005 Conference Choir. Kelly has opened twice for gospel great, Dorothy Norwood and for Jamaican singing evangelist, Claude Edwards. In March 2005, Kelly's song, "Where Is The Man I Need?" won first place in its category in an international songwriting con-test. See for yourself at songoftheyear.com. Also, for her song, "Gotta Have It", Kelly was named East Regional Fi-nalist in the Sizzlin' Sounds of Late Night music contest 2001. Kelly's rendition of America's National Anthem was an awe-some opening for the Fourth Annual Sweet Taste of the Arts Festival in Camden, New Jersey where news anchor, Ukee Washington, was emcee for the evening. She sang and re-corded the theme song for Joe Repas's Word of Life radio ministry which airs on Gospel 800AM WTMR Camden/ Philadelphia. Kelly has appeared on the Bobby Jones New Artist Showcase aired on the Word Television Network, been a member of the McGuire AFB Gospel Choir and more. She sings at various venues upon request. Her Christmas EP titled "God's Gift" is truly a gift from God in these times when the world forgets that "Jesus is the Reason for the season". Her upcoming release, "No Greater Force" is underway, and as Kelly says, "the best is yet to come".
