CLASSICAL: Traditional, NEW AGE: New Age Details: Serenity:Music for Harp and Flute This CD has a beautiful variety of soothing and sensual music, from John Denver to Pachelbel, Paul Simon to Bach. It has been acclaimed to soothe, heal, caress the soul and/or give wings to its listeners. The CD has been favorably used to calm and soothe in everyday life as well as during labor and delivery, hospice situations, during transition times in elementary school, as a quieting lullaby in evenings and in Alzheimer wings. Serenity Now. Many have written to say "Serenity" has touched and strengthened their souls. May the music do the same for you. Quotes about Serenity:Music for Harp and Flute "We found the CD-Serenity'-to be just as it is titled: calming and tranquilizing. It is very pleasant for the ear and relaxing to the soul, giving you a sense of peace and contentment as you wind down your frantic paced day. It is reflective and uplifting-music to treasure forever. We love your CD." Brenda and David S "Before I had my copy, I spent many frustrating hours a week commuting on California freeways. Now, I put the CD in and drift away in a peaceful place, surrounded by soothing notes, allowing me to spend that driving time with a feeling of tranquility." Emily B Executive Assistant "We used the Serenity CD and it always calmed and soothed the Alzeheimer/Elder care adults and babies as well. It especially helped relax them when they were restless, anxious in the afternoon awaiting to go home for the day." Diana M Care Giver and Assistant Generations Together "With select music (Serenity CD), students were calmed and better able to perform to their ability on tests, as evidenced by higher test scores." MEA Instruction and Professional Development Conference "Conquering Performance Anxiety, Raising Test Scores Through Music" Hayes G. Dabney, II "Serenity CD incredibly uplifts your soul...very spiritual" Tamara "The CD is so peaceful we have purchased one for each of our four adult children, one for each of our two homes and two more for close relatives." Michael K Attorney at Law Susan J GM Corporation "The Serenity CD puts people into a state where their bodies can begin the healing process. It empowers artists to do their most creative work." Maryanne B Watercolor Artist "One of Rochelle's tapes arrived and I took it to work while coding.

It's such beautiful relaxing music. One of my coworkers thought that was what the music in Heaven would sound like!" Barbara F Registered Nurse "I enjoy the harp and flute mixture of classical and contemporary selections. My massage clients frequently request it. They say it helps them achieve the process of relaxation. Serenity is one of the few CD's that I never tire of." Phyllis L Certified Massage Therapist "I play the Serenity CD often because I, too, find the music very relaxing". Grace M (Rochelle's mom) PhenonmeNEWS September 1999 Reviewer: Greg Ozimek Serenity CD: Music for Harp and Flute The title is aptly named. Perhaps over 30 years of performing harp and flute together has melded an emotional bond that vibrates between these two women, Rochelle Martinez-Mouilleseaux, harp, Nancy Waring, flute. Legends have sprung from the magic spell of the harp. Serenity casts such a spell which is calming, taming, and introspective. This collection of classic and transcriptions will at least provide supportive background for the settled times of your life studying, reading, and other pleasures. Nancy and Rochelle are both lovers of music and its soothing effects on their listeners. The Harpist Rochelle Martinez-Mouilleseaux is a professional harpist with an exciting repertoire of musical experience. Rochelle is a graduate of The University of Michigan School of Music, where she received Bachelor and Master of Music degrees in Harp Performance. Among an array of very well acclaimed instructors, Rochelle has studied with teachers Ruth Dean Clark and Alice Chalifoux. She has performed throughout the tri-state area as a soloist and principal harpist with various state orchestras, including the Flint, Battle Creek, Ann Arbor Chamber, and Dearborn Symphony orchestras. In addition to her busy performance schedule, Rochelle currently teaches music in the Ann Arbor (Michigan) Public Schools. She is known for her compositions of children's curriculum-based materials, including the award-winning production "Presidency 101."
