In 2002, Seluah released their self-titled debut CD, available in stores and through Touch and Go Records distribution or online at cdbaby.com. It contains a sampling of the music that has earned enthusiastic reviews and won fans in numerous cities. Seluah has embraced a tasteful mix of ethereal vocals, swirling synths, atmospheric guitars, dub-style bass, and trip-hop drumming to make music that is both beautiful and accessible; Ambient yet substantial. Passionately melding solid rhythms and erotic, searching melodies, Seluah continues to create entrancing and breathtaking music. Fans of the following bands should definitely investigate:.... Portishead Massive Attack Pink Floyd DJ Shadow Air Radiohead Laika Bowery Electric TRS 80 My Bloody Valentine Chris Isaak Rachel's Boom Bip Angelo Badalamenti Perfume Tree Depeche Mode Tangerine Dream Interpol Aphex Twin Boards of Canada "This album is the perfect soundtrack for alien porn filmed in a rift of the space-time continuum. Pink Floyd-esque ambience meets Portishead beats with a smattering of Radiohead-like vocals. But this is far from derivative. Those comparisons are just an attempt to describe this band's unique psychedelic sound. Seluah mixes old pop devices and electronic etheralism to create music that is without time; in the middle of time. Like Brad Pitt portraying a sexy criminal in a noir film full of spaceships and time warps..." Rob Monroe, Finding Datura Ezine
