The new breed of heavy-melodic-power metal straight out of Peoria, IL. 11 MP3 Songs METAL: Power Metal, ROCK: Hard Rock Details: ...You stand in the place where life and death meet and the one who judges will ask ... "Did you serve for the good or sacrifice for the evil; Do you stand with a tainted soul or hands clean." and you will answer... "the ends will Justify the Means". Bringing new life to the Central Illinois music scene, Justify The Means is the new breed of heavy-melodic metal straight out of Peoria. Established late 2003, this quartet has taken over its local music scene in record time forcing its guitar driven, drum slammin', bass thumpin', aggressively melodic vocals down the throats of all listeners. JTM has earned their seniority playing every weekend; becoming Peoria's hardest working band; taking no prisoners along the way. In less than 2 years JTM has opened for countless National Acts; picked up multiple sponsorships and endorsements; became the "Original" house band for 99X, Peoria's biggest rock radio station, hosts the "biggest" local metal shows averaging 600+; and now continues to tour the country in support of its new CD "NO END". Tim Auer - vocals Bela McKnight - guitars/vocals Nik Merriman - bass Brett Huntley - drums DISC-OGRAPHY: "NO END" (full length) released October 2005. "8 WAYS TO EXPRESS" released August 2004. "self-titled" (3-song demo) released November 2003. Combined Justify The Means has sold over 3000 CD's . SHARED THE STAGE WITH: Three Days Grace, 40 Below Summer, Super Joint Ritual , Bobaflex, Future Leaders Of The World (F.L.O.W.), Cinder, Oh My God, Vampire Moose, Shame Lady, Madside, Deaf Pedestians.
