Details: Biography Double Down is hugely influenced by the big arena rock bands of the 80s. Bands like Guns&Roses, Van Halen, and Pink Floyd to name a few. Theres nothing like the sound of blazing guitars, thundering bass and bombastic drums to get your heart thumping! Now, this doesnt mean that Double Down is out sporting zebra striped spandex and gobs of eye shadow. In fact, despite our Rock roots, Double Downs songwriting is more reminiscent of the Gin Blossoms and Goo-Goo Dolls, but with a little extra oomph thrown in. Double Down's first independent release Still Motion showcases Rock, Blues, country, and penmanship of the early singer/songwriter days. Double Down takes it up a notch in their newly produced CD, Polarity, a more refined and complex manifestation. Double Down is currently playing in some of Colorados finest venues for original music. Their songs have also been played on KGNU 88.5 FM, numerous pod casts, and various other independent radio stations nationwide.

Double Down has a great sound. I was really surprised to hear a band like this in Denver's local scene. They combine some very tight musicians with a dynamite vocalist and grab your ear from across the room. The riffs are catchy the music is fun and the voice makes it all sing. Catchy riffs! A perfect fit to the vocals.....A haunting voice, grabbed my attention the moment I heard it..... A great sound. Country rock, with a modern twist. The vocals pull you in, the songs are well made. Double Down is the whole package, and certainly a band to see soon. Really a treat to listen to. Cole A&R Dept. CAM Records
