Somewhere between soul and neo-soul there is damumalik. This is electric soul music. 11 MP3 Songs

URBAN/R&B: Soul, URBAN/R&B: Rhythm Blues Details: Raised in Baltimore, damumalik's creative roots go back to humble beginnings in community theatre. After branching out to Philly where he attended the University of the Arts, his growth finally brought him west where he eventually graduated from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts. His stage credits include the critically acclaimed L.A. stage production of Central Avenue at the Fountain Theatre and the Sacramento Theatre Companys production of Blues for an Alabama Sky. damumalik then turned his focus back to music and while selling T-shirts for Bay Area based Blackalicious, he found himself recording tracks for Blackalicious' "Blazing Arrow" and Karl Densons Tiny Universe on The Bridge. Later, damumalik would go on to tour with Blackalicious providing background vocals for the group during gigs in Australia, Japan, France, Germany and England. While abroad, damumalik found himself singing live on BBC Radio and performing on German TV. Back in North America his journey with the group included opening for Alicia Keys and touring with Jay-Z and N.E.R.D. Now solo, damumalik's creativity has found its way into millions of homes through the UPN'S hit show "Girlfriends" where his song "Jealousy" was featured in an episode. damumalik has also licensed and composed music for The Living Series and 5 Guys, 5 Questions as part of the SHONEXT original series PIRATENET and composed music for the MAVERVICKS SPORTS campaign.

FRAGMENT is damumalik's debut album. Recommended Listening: "Love All Over" and "Jealousy"
