Released in January 2006, in anticipation of Lincoln's birthday, the song is intended to inspire children and adults to learn more about the 16th president. The CD single is now available online at cdbaby.com. All profits are donated to F.A.M.E. (Foundation for the Advancement of Malden Education.) A non-profit organization that provides financial assistance to Malden Public Schools in Massachusetts. The Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission was established by Congress to plan a "fitting and proper" national celebration of the 16th president's 200th birthday in 2009. Its members, appointed by the president and congressional leaders, include political leaders, jurists, historians, and collectors. The ALBC aims to renew Americans' appreciation of Lincoln's ideals of freedom, democracy, and equal opportunity, and to encourage all people to "live the legacy."
