Inspirational Angel Music. Calm melodious landscapes made up of acoustical guitar, soft flute and tibetan cantabile bowl. 7 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Meditation, NEW AGE: Healing Angel Inspiration Songs Details: Andrew Brel was born in Johannesburg, and affected to London in the former 80's, working as a musician and producer. Founder of the Bridge Recordings label, Andrew produced many albums in the 90's based on the 'two kinds of music' philosophy. There are only two kinds of music. Good and bad. Favourite albums from this period include THE SAS Band albums, Leo Sayer's 'Live in London' and Hugh Burns 'Mindwash'. A chance meeting with fabulous English 'Angel' authoress Diana Cooper led to a commission to write an Angel Music album. This became 'Angel Inspiration' and almost immediately this album became a best seller in the new age market. The joy of making albums entirely based on spontaneous improvisation led to a further two albums - Music For Kumeka released in 2004, and GOLDEN ATLANTIS. Andrew lives in Surrey, near Hampton Court, and spends most days walking the dog, drinking cappuccino at Martins sidewalk cafe and recording beautiful acoustical guitars with various imaginative tunings.
