Kirtan - Yogic Chanting - World Music 8 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Traditions, NEW AGE: Healing Details: Two CDs of high voltage chanting to supercharge your home/car/mind from chant master Gandharva. Ecstatic chanting that turns emotion into devotion by burning everything that's not real.
Chanting reminds us of what can never be taken away - the silence within that is the truth. So, join us in chanting at the top of your lungs, take off your worldly clothes and dance around your home/car/mind in the delirious dance of the spirit. What have you got to lose except your mind, and who needs a mind anyway? In other words - turn it on, turn it up, and turn yourself loose! CD 1 contains Gandharva's versions of time-tested chants about love perfection. This CD is enhanced - when played in your computer you have access to two movies, chant lyrics and photos. CD 2 was recorded completely live and is as close to seeing Gandharva Party in person as you can get. Play it loud! GANDHARVA SAULS is a Certified Ayurveda/Multi-Dimensional Counselor, co-director of The Ayurveda-Yoga Institute Of New York and New Jersey, and a professional musician for over 30 years. Gandharva is unique among Ayurvedic practitioners in that he practices the original Ancient Ayurveda system, and has been blessed with the sacred gift of reading the Ayurvedic Life Blueprint, which illuminates a person's strengths and challenges in every area of life - from physical to spiritual - and initiates them into their own spiritual path.
He has over eighteen years of experience in Ayurveda and Yoga, and shares his knowledge worldwide teaching Ancient Ayurveda workshops, trainings, and leading ecstatic chanting.
