Classic Soft 70's Pop and 70's Rock. Undeniable hits from a classic, unforgettable band that changed the airwaves. 10 MP3 Songs POP: 70's Pop, ROCK: 70's Rock Details: Born into the golden time period of the 70's, the music of Seals Crofts continues to be a testimony to the wave of creativity that to this day inspires new artists. In this CD of all new recordings, produced by Jack Hale of Hale House Productions, Seals Crofts were able to utilize the latest in recording technology, to breathe new life into the classic hits as well as new material. Now you can hear their music, as they always wanted it interpreted. Featured on this collection are Lua Crofts (daughter of Dash Crofts), and Juliet Seals (daughter of Jim Seals). Summer Breeze has been used in commercial ads, television and movies, including the opening song in the popular movie I Know What You Did Last Summer. No less than 25 current artists have recorded it. We May Never Pass This Way Again has been used countless times as the theme song for many events and the graduation song for high schools and colleges. In addition, Seals Crofts continue to receive an astonishing amount of airplay. Their beautiful sound, well-crafted lyrics and unique style remain timeless and universal. They have stated on many occasions that the marriage between the lyrics, chords and melodies of their art sometimes have a tendency to obscure the depth of the message within their song. The "Traces" CD showcases this legendary duo at their very best. So listen closely, and be prepared to enjoy Seals Crofts of 2004. We look forward to hearing more of their new musical direction on future recordings!
