Related styles: SPOKEN WORD: Storytelling, SPOKEN WORD: Prose Details: Proceeds from the sale of this CD benefit the Delaware Riverkeeper Network - the only advocacy organization working throughout the entire Delaware River Watershed. I am so pleased to be able to share these stories with people in the Delaware Valley and beyond. And there is no better cause to support than protecting the environment our children will inherit." said Uke Jackson. Grounded in the power of the River and the community, the Delaware Riverkeeper, backed by the Delaware Riverkeeper Network, staunchly champions the needs of the Delaware river and in so doing ensures its unfettered ability to protect and provide for all the human and nonhuman communities that love, appreciate and depend upon it. Established in 1988 upon the appointment of the Delaware Riverkeeper, the Delaware Riverkeeper Network is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) membership organization, an affiliate of the American Littoral Society. DRN's professional staff and volunteers work throughout the entire Delaware River Watershed including portions of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and New York. Go to delawareriverkeeper.org/donate/joinus.asp to join and support the Delaware Riverkeeper Network and add your voice to the thousands already actively supporting the Delaware River. By showing your commitment to this grand treasure, you will help ensure that our children and grandchildren can enjoy its beauty and bounty. The Delaware Riverkeeper Network can be contacted at 300 Pond Street, 2nd Floor; Bristol, PA 19007. Call 215-369-1188 or email drkn@delawareriverkeeper.org. Thanks for helping to protect and restore the Delaware River, its tributaries and habitats.
