GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: Judy Jacobs is an inspiring and anointed woman of God who through word and song presents the Good News of Jesus Christ. She is known for her dynamic singing and also ministry in the word, demonstrating the joy of true worship and encouraging followers of Christ to worship freely, allowing God to transform their lives. Using her vast repertoire of original music, she is able to uniquely communicate God's powerful message to his people. As a teacher, preacher and psalmist Judy has led thousands of people into heartfelt worship through concerts, conferences, churches and conventions around the world. Through her ministry people have come to a saving knowledge of Christ, bodies have been healed, marriages restored and many Christians have been able to grow spiritually and make positive life changing decisions. The youngest of 12 children, she began her singing ministry at her church at the age of eight years old. With encouragement from her family in her music, she was taught the importance of spirit-filled ministry. Judy shares, "Seeing my parent's commitment to prayer and fasting, gave me a hunger and desire after the things of God and they became the greatest spiritual influence in my life." Judy was involved in many successful music groups, but it was not until 1989 when she established His Song Ministries that God began to broaden her territory of ministry. Since then, she has expanded her ministry by recording music albums and creating preaching sessions on tapes and compact discs. In addition to all her previous ministry work, Judy has also been involved with many powerful ministries including: T.D. Jakes and The Potters House, Mega Fest, Benny Hinn Crusades, Dominion Camp Meetings with Rod Parsley, Christian Woman's Conferences, Trinity Broadcasting Network and many others facets of ministry. Further extending her ministry, in 2002 Judy established the "Press...Push...Pursue" Women's Conference, and the International Institute of Mentoring designed to train, equip, instruct and impart into women who are called to minister. She has also authored a variety of Christian publications such as: Christian magazine articles, devotions and her soon-to-be released book from Charisma House Publishing. As a wife and mother of two, Judy understands the everyday challenges and trials women face in trying to balance ministry and family. Through experiences, she has learned that living a Christ-centered life is vital to living victoriously. This explosive ministry encourages audiences out of their comfort zone, to seek the power to walk in the authority and the boldness of God and experience the complete fulfillment He wants for each of their lives.
