Details: Tin Can Radio is a truly exciting up-and-coming Brisbane based band. Their infectious flavour of synth-driven indie dance music infuses the heavy rhythms of drum n bass, discopunk and breakbeats to their unique soulful melodic stylings. Moving through genres like sands through the hourglass: Electro, Dubstep, Soul-Reggae Grooves These are the days of our Tin Can Radio. Combining this with their high energy stage show, a Tin Can Radio live performance is a MUST SEE for anyone on a night out, from the most overzealous groovers to the chilled, head-nodding wall-flowers.

_____ Formed to their most recent incarnation in September 2008, Tin Can Radios fun loving, catchy tunes have seen them secure a residency at West Ends Shire Teahouse, where they have built up a solid local fan base gaining rave reviews and a whirlwind of support. Then going on to play a spot at the Island Vibe festival 2008 and shortly after at the 2008/09 Woodford Folk Festival with their late night progressive dance performance as Tin Can Radio Vs. Rude Cat Sound System, trading songs with and battling off against a turntablist. 2009 has seen the band return to doing what they know best playing packed shows at their residency in Brisbane as well as Earthfeq festival in the Sunshine Coast hinterlands. The band then headed into the studio to record their debut self titled EP. After several months in hibernation the band has now risen from their recording-induced slumber, launching their debut E.P. on Friday the 17th of July at Brisbanes Hi-Fi. Then hitting the road for a run of shows on the Gold Coast, Byron and Sunshine Coast.
