Roger is also a well respected vocal coach who has worked with many main stream artists including Brandy, Macy Gray, Nona Gaye, Ray J., and many more. He has performed all types of music which brings a very eclectic feel to the music on this CD. At a recent concert a reviewer commented that Roger was a wonderful mixture of Lionel Richie and Michael Crawford, aluding to the wonderful trained quality of his voice and the emotional impact it has on listeners. This CD was a collabation with producer Daveed and many songwriters including Roger. The title track, "Angel In Disguise" was written by Roger and Ken Larish as a tribute to his sister-in-law, Cecilia who lost her battle with breast cancer in 2000. Roger's desire was to create a work that would touch and inspire his listeners and from critic's reviews, he has achieved this.
