This 4 part series of affiliate basics video lessons can be downloaded to your computer allowing you to watch them at your own speed, in your own time. Learning by seeing allows the mind to take in information easier and quicker compared to reading an e-book. It is like looking over the shoulder of an experienced affiliate marketer as they go through the basics of setting up the foundations and running a profitable affiliate campaign. So what do you get? Just take a look: Part 1 In this video tutorial, you will be guided into the world of making money selling other peoples products. It explains the basics of affiliate marketing and shows you the best places to look for suitable products to earn commissions from. Part 2 In this video tutorial, you will learn the importance of driving traffic to your site and getting the word out and attracting people to see your offers. You will learn how to get traffic to your promotions by using the FREE method of article marketing. Part 3 The subject of using autoresponders can be putting-off many people who are just starting out with their affiliate marketing career. But this video lesson makes it easy to understand and explains the importance of this concept in easy steps. Part 4 Using product review templates can greatly reduce the amount of time it takes you to set up a new affiliate site. This video lesson guides you through the set up and use of review templates and explains the best ways to use them to promote your offer in an effective manner
