Derek Richard's high-energy brand of comedy is best described as a politically incorrect discussion amongst friends at a bar. 22 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Comedy Details: "The only thing surprising about Derek is that he's not bigger." ---Florida New Times Magazine If the serious side of life were a plate glass window, the out of control cement truck barreling toward it at 100mph would be Derek Richards. As a comedian, Richards leaves fellow cynics screaming for more. And as a cancer survivor, he proves that a full throttle sense of humor can make even the most dire days a laughing matter. His act does not focus on having cancer or his recovery, so if you're looking for chemo-comedy, go elsewhere. His act is fast, fresh and, at times, fanatical --- often described as a politically incorrect discussion amongst friends at a bar. A veteran of several USO tours, Richards was chosen as one of the first performers at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba after the base began guarding jailed Al-Qaeda terrorists. The comedy tour earned Richards national coverage in Newsweek. He also performed at U.S. base camps in seven countries, including Iraq and Afghanistan. You can catch Richards on the air via the XM Satellite Radio Network and on the nationally syndicated, Bob and Tom Show along with Bob and Sheri. He also appeared on The Weather Channel's Top 10 series. Check out his Web site at derekrichards.com.
