"Swept In Sound", the beautiful and haunting debut album from twenty-two year old singer/songwriter Gina Catalino. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Ani, POP: with Live-band Production Details: "Swept In Sound", the beautiful and haunting debut album from twenty-two year old singer/songwriter Gina Catalino. Organic, ethereal and elegant, her voice demands attention. Following no specific genre, her music is simply a style you can't define. "Swept In Sound" can be best described as folk rock with hints of pop, jazz and blues. Drawing from singer songwriters such as Ani DiFranco and Ray Lamontagne to soulful artists like Jill Scott, and Erykah Badu, Ginas "Swept In Sound" blends various genres of music into a beautiful and haunting 12- track emotional roller-coaster. While exploring various genres of music, Ginas vocals remain distinctive and emotionally explosive. From ballads that can rip your heart out, to upbeat songs that show a bit of sunshine through the clouds, Ginas "Swept In Sound" is one of a kind. Produced Tom Arlotta, recorded in NYC, "Swept In Sound" features talented industry musicians such as Kenyatta Beasley and Casey Benjamin, who have worked with Ben Harper, Lauryn Hill, P. Diddy, Shakira and Carlos Santana. Much of the piano work came from Brian Charette, who has worked with Chaka Khan, Cindy Lauper, and Joni Mitchell to name a few to name a few. Profound lyrics! Smashing sound! Pure, clear and touching!
