Raw punchlines and deeply personal topics set against hip-hop beats fused with firey classic rock guitar. Guest appearances by Qwel, Maker, Mo-B from the Sandpeople, and more. 17 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, ROCK: Classic Rock Details: New up and Comer Wildcard proves himself a lyricist to be reckoned with on this dynamic debut album. A father/son project started in Los Angeles County in 2002, the goal is to match classic rock with hip hop the right way. Wildcard, a writer/vocalist from Los Angeles County, has always been into creative writing and music, and at the age of 14 fused both of those together and has been sharpening his skills and craft for around ten years now. He's made tracks with artists such as Krayzie Bone, Qwel, Mo-B (Sandpeople), and more. His Pops has always played the electric guitar and was brought in on a project in 2002 called Liquid Red..after that particular song, they decided to amalgamate his classic rock generation style with Wildcard's hip hop generation style...After years of turmoil, issues, incarceration, and the general rollercoaster of life experiences..they have finally sculpted a dynamic album called "Dark Night of the Soul" which is out and available now....Tell a friend to tell a friend, because this music is done on a strictly independent level and word of mouth is vital to enhance growth of indie artists...No help from a label or boss...Its time to shine...
