Learning to fly lyrics
Don't you try to tell me what to feel
For the tears of this life Aren't even real
I have learned the lessons that you taught
But now I need the truth that I have forgot (chorus) I'm learning to fly again
Finding that place in the sky I knew back when Learning to fly again
Finding that place Deep inside To take me home and take me back again
Don't you try to tell me what to see For the visions of this world
Are what have blinded me Don't you try to tell me what to say
For your many words of wisdom Have led me astray (chorus)
Don't you try to tell me that I'm wrong For I've walked your narrow roads
For far to long Don't point out the proverbs of the past
For the lessons of my youth Were never built to last (chorus)
I'm learning to fly again Finding that place in the sky I knew back when Learning to fly again
Finding that place Deep inside To take me home and take me back again I'm learning to fly
