"I Like to Sing. with Sukey Molloy". is a lively and energetic assortment of rhythmical music entertainment for toddlers and pre-schoolers with an emphasis on movement and song the whole family can enjoy. 18 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Sing-Along/Interactive, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: Sukey Molloy is an early childhood movement and music educator, award-winning recording artist of children's music (Children's Music Web Award winner 2006), and founder of PlayMove&Sing Inc., offering creative interactive play products for the very young. "I Like to Sing!" appeals to both toddlers and pre-school age children, with songs like; "Today is Monday", "What Kind of Animal Would You Be", and "Jump Down Turn Around". Sukey composes and performs lively, original tunes which are geared toward movement expression for the very young, and designed to feed and nurture the developing brain. Each song and chant incorporates a variety of rhythm and sound to enhance and encourage listening, and to challenge children to get up and move. Sukey includes traditional songs as well as original, using favorite melodies such as Skip to M'Lou, and composing creative new lyrics to inspire a wide range of movement possibilities for children to explore while singing. "I Like to Sing!" is Sukey Molloy's second CD. Her first CD, "Circle Songs with Sukey Molloy", won the 2006 Children's Music Web Award for Best Recording Birth to 3, and Best Single for "My Boat", co-authored with music companion and Circle Song Band member, Patrick Jones. "Circle Songs" was co-produced with Larry Alexander, and features musical arrangements by classical composer Matthew Baier.
