WORLD: Native American, NEW AGE: Spiritual Details: Introducing the long awaited, new Solo Flute CD by John Two-Hawks! For the first time ever, on this CD, Platinum Award winning and EMMY nominated American Indian flute virtuoso John Two-Hawks offers up a rare collection of his incredible flute solos. Considered by some to be one of the greatest Native flute players of all time, this musical offering showcases the effortless mastery with which Two-Hawks plays these ancient instruments. More importantly, these flute renditions are powerful spiritual expressions from the soul of a man who possesses not only great technical skill, but a deeply personal connection with the amazing cedar flute. Two-Hawks says: "I am always honored and humbled to be able to play these flutes. In Lakota, the word for flute is 'Hokagapi', which means 'to make a voice.' After years of experience with these beautiful instruments, I can tell you that the flute is indeed, a voice. To all who have heard the call of this voice in the cedar flute, I am honored to share these songs."
