Rachelle's latest release of ten brand new original songs is an evocative, luminous, fiercely humorous and emotionally intelligent collection of genre-defying New Americana, via New York City. 10 MP3 Songs

POP: Quirky, JAZZ: Jazz Vocals Details: Rachelle Garniez, singer / songwriter / accordionist / performer

was born into a musical family in New York City and has been devoted to music ever since. She began playing the accordion in 1986, and her explorations have taken her from playing on the subway platforms and in the clubs of New York to jamming with gypsies in Spain and performing at Carnival in Venice. Her compositions reflect influences ranging from the Blues, Continental and Klezmer to Latin Jazz and Country/Western. Billboard Magazine called her a "diva with a difference", and San Franciscos Bay Area Reporter described her as "wistful, sardonic, sentimental and wry." She formed her own band, The Fortunate Few, in 1996 and they released their first CD, Serenade City in 1998. recorded on Rachelle's own Real Cool Records label, Serenade City received critical praise in Billboard Magazine and other publications. Rachelle Garniez The Fortunate Few released Crazy Blood (Real Cool), their follow-up CD in March 2001. Both CDs are available online at CD Baby.
