Details: NESTOR MARTINEZ NESTOR At 16 Nestor put into practice his musical abilities by joining the sextet Poder Y Fe. Two weeks later he was called as lead singer for the orchestra Son de San Juan. A short time later, Nestor met Wilmer Cobos, a successful singer for Nati Martinerz who introduced him to the great Banda Cream Orchestra, directed by Percussionist and Maestro Wilians Ugarte, now director of Nestors orchestra. Upon the dissolution of Banda Cream Orchestra, Nestor joined Jimmy DLeon, son of illustrious salsa leader Oscar DLeon, to sing with the Orchestra of Starling Garcias. Following this, Nestor joined the Oschestra of Maestro Jesus Torres (Mandinga), together with Wilmer Cobos and Alcides Urbina. I have also had the great satisfaction, Nestor comments, of playing drums with the Gran Combo de Venezuela, together with the late great son player Leo Pacheco, and the great son player known as Don Wicho. Nestor was also lead singer for Orchestra La Oportunidad. I want to send my best wishes and thank Nene Papita, Nio and Moises, members of todays Group Crema, for their support. And especially to Javier Aratia, my impartial Manager and Producer for this, my first production. Presently, aside from carrying Salsa and rhythm with my orchestra everywhere, I engrave with music notes, my message of reflection for the planet, and the fight against drugs through my song entitled La Esquina Caliente. I am very grateful indeed.
