

Mp3 76 Degrees West Band - 76 Degrees West

DOWNLOAD HERE

Funk/nu jazz 2 MP3 Songs in this album (9:25) ! Related styles: JAZZ: Jazz-Funk, URBAN/R&B: Funk

People who are interested in Average White Band Brian Culbertson should consider this download.

Details: 76 Degrees West Band: School Boy Crush You'll enjoy instrumental Funky Jazz music with saxophone highlights wrapped in a East Coast Swing. Notes Nu Jazz Music 76 Degrees West Band has just released a Funky Jazz cover of the Average White Bands super hit, "School Boy Crush". It is sure to light you up with that Washington DC funk flavor, combining old school with new school. The band is based out of the Washington DC area and has played behind numerous national acts such as the Grammy Award Winner Gordon Chambers, Sax Man Jimmy Sommers, Eric Darius, Allyson Williams, and Angela Johnson. They call their style "Nu Jazz-Funk" which has been lighting up stages across the U.S. since 2001, swiftly evolving into one of the funkier sounding groups to hit the music industry. They have performed at various festivals and clubs around the country with other artists such as: Ledisi, Maysa, Grammy Nominee Victor Duplaix, Lynne Fiddmont, Marcus Johnson, Rahsaan Patterson, Ollie Woodson (of The Temptations), Rick Braun, Michael Langton, and more. 76 Degrees West Band is: Leon Rawlings - Director, Bass Guitar, Trombone Eddie Baccus - Sax Duane Thomas - Drums Sean Chase - Drums Alfredo Mojica - Percussion Stanley Cooper - Lead Rhythm Guitar Gerry Gillespie Keyboards Vince Evans- Keyboards The bands name was inspired by the longitude for the East Coast in the Western Hemisphere which is 76W covering the Washington DC metropolitan area. They are currently working on a hot debut album set to be released in the fall of 2008. Their version of "School Boy Crush" is sure to get your party started right.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: