Chris Driesbach from the Moose Lodge in Anchorage was one of the most unique shows in Music, with "The Phone Thing" his voice is incredible and his phone demeanor very humorous and entertaining. The "Motorcoach Commander" brings Service's works to life. 22 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Poetry, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: As a 13 year old selling programs at his Dad's hotel nightclub show in Whitehorse Yukon Territory, Canada, Kris learned his first two Service Ballads while watching the actors act them out on the stage of the show over and over. Ingrained in his mind he recited the two "Cremation of Sam McGee" and "The Ballad of the Iceworm Cocktail for many years, until he came across a Larry Beck video on the local public television channel and began to watch Larry recite 7 other's that Kris didn't know. Hours of watching and learning and he finally got 9 Service Ballads down to memory and the only one missing on the CD is The Ballad of Bessie's Boil which may appear on the Second thousand CD's! Kris R. Mueller was born in and resides in Anchorage, Alaska. His Grandparents came to Alaska in 1939 Trapping and Gold Mining. He has a Health and Physical Education degree from Linfield College and is a member of the Linfield College Hall of Fame as an Athlete. In 1988 he participated in the Olympic Marathon Trials. He still enjoys driving with the City of Anchorage as a "Motorcoach Commander"/Bus Driver for Anchorage's "People Mover" system and is now retired from tour driving, but still performs as often as possible. He has been licensed with Primerica Financial Services a member of Citigroup since 1988 and still holds the top part-time position as a Regional Leader. In 2000 he married the "Queen of the hub of the Yukon Delta" Billie Jean Hootch and together have a daughter the "Princess of Cook Inlet" Michelle Amanda Mueller and a son Billy James "Prince of Turnagain Arm", and born on 4-22-05 Wanda Flora Mueller "Princess of Knik Arm". Kris will be performing live in Anchorage this summer at the Aspen Hotel across from the Museum up town Anchorage, Monday Nights Only 8-9 PM so come out and see a live performance! Chris Driesbach is retired from the music business but his "Phone Thing" will live on forever. Taxi, the independent A R leader, rated his singing and lyrics on the CD a 9 out of a possible 10! He currently resides in New Orleans.
