Well most products have to supply you with actual nicotine to help you quit, but it isn't really quitting if your still craving nicotine. That is why this product is so effective it actually makes your brain quit thinking nicotine is a way to get pleasure, but instead to dislike nicotine all together. Some people have even said the taste of a cigarette is the worse thing in the world after using this product. That's because your brain thinks of nicotine in a different way afterward. Not as a good thing, but as the horrible thing it actually is. If your a smoker and ready to finally quit the thousand dollar a year habit that's just killing you and your family you need to try our product. Our product is simple as putting on headphones, laying back and relaxing. All you have to do is simply download our product and watch your addiction go up in smoke and all the thousands you used to spend on that nasty habit, goes strait into your pocket. This product is even cheaper than those disgusting packs you used to buy. So download our product for only $1.99 ***here is some feed back from our successful customers*** Adrianna Feltch, 26, Cali. "I was very skeptical at first, but it really works. I smoked since I was 16 and the first time I used this product I felt no real need to smoke ever again. " Mike Osborne, 65, New York city "I've tried many products with no success at all, but

I stumbled across this site that said all I needed was 5 minutes once a week and I would feel no need to smoke. I thought there was no hope for me to quit smoking after I had been smoking for 40 years and just recently they diagnosed me with emphysema. My family begged me to quit, that this could be it for me. They were afraid I would be gone before my grandson was born, but nothing had any effect on me even with my knowing I may not be able to meet the new addition to the family. Until god sent me this product and I thank him every day on my new lease on life." Charline Crooke,36,Atlanta,Georgia "I had to be the most unbelieving person in the world of this product, when ever I heard all it took was a minimum of 5 minutes a week and I could quit the thing that was killing me and making me age so much faster than I could had of ever imagined. I have always said there is never a easy way of anything but I have been proven wrong. I've tried every product that I could get my hands on but it seemed like there was no hope for me ever quitting the thing that was killing me. I said to my self why not just pay $2 and solve all these problems with my aging and my health getting worse and worse by the day. It would be stupid not to do this I mean I was spending $40 a week in cigarettes why not save that money and pay a bill or buy something nice instead of paying to kill yourself." There is a 97.984 success rate that is absolutely amazing to actually witness well over 100,000 people just listen to this once and never touch cigarettes ever again. I am so very sorry it took so long to release this product but that is how you get this product so great and effective,with 5 years of testing we finally have a product that we are proud to say it will change your life and your families, for ever.
