

Mp3 Sam Shaber - Perfect

Folk-Influenced Pop - this crisp live recording captures the energy and essence of Sam in her element. Her second release and still going strong. 15 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: The spiffy re-release of the 1999 live album, complete with special extra track at the end! Featuring tracks such as the rousing "All of This," the touching "Rain and Sunshine," and the downright goofy "Bomb Threat in New Rochelle," this snapshot of a hard-working, hard-playing live troubadour just about lives up to its name! Says Sam; "I could talk about my musical influences but then I would have to admit the hours I spent dancing to Duran Duran in my bedroom years ago. So instead I'll tell you that I graduated from Cornell University, (I swear I was over them by then... but I'll always have a soft spot for John Taylor...) and currently I'm based in my hometown of New York City and touring from San Francisco to Scotland. "My second album, perfectT, self-produced and released on Brown Chair Records, has been getting airplay across the country and was voted #7 out of 1800 titles for Best Independent CD of 1999 at CD Baby.com. "Who knew that hours of singing along to "Hungry Like the Wolf" could amount to something? Hope you enjoy the CD!" Sam Shaber samshaber.com "Stark raving great!" - Gene Shay, WXPB 88.5fm, Philadelphia "A riveting performer. Sam Shaber's got the whole package." - Folkweb "This is a real human being you're listening to." - Shout Magazine "Sam Shaber leads the next generation of singer/songwriters into our collective consciousness." - WNEW 102.7fm, New York "Shaber is one of those precious few performers who believes in letting her songs tell her story and making every appearance along the way a special moment for her audience." - Patrick Walsh, Peekskill Herald, NY "Sam Shaber possesses the keen insight of a sage and the ability to set wisdom in motion." - Michael Henningsen, Albuquerque Weekly Alibi, New Mexico
