Details: Kasia is a vocalist and a songwriter blending jazz, world music and pop in a bowl of gentle but soulful sounds Her delicate timbre and unique sound present in her songs can be attributed to her passion for exploration of music and everyday life. It is the passion which allows her to stay open for the people and the joy of the world. Born in Warsaw, Poland, from the early childhood she was in love with music, singing wherever it was possible In her teens, she became fascinated with jazz and decided to explore the music more as well as start writing her own songs. She moved to Boston and graduated from Berklee College of Music. During the years at the school she developed her composition skills, which allow her to speak out her heart. Her search of her own voice led her to a unique style of writing influenced by what surrounds her and the people she meets. To her beloved artists belong: Dianne Reeves, Bobby McFerrin, Pat Metheny, Anna Maria Jopek, Lizz Wright, Sting, Michel Legrand, Kenny Garrett, Cassandra Wilson, Ella Fitzgerald, Keith Jarrett, Sade, Fryderyk Chopin, Noa, Brandford Marsalis, Nancy Wilson, Shirley Horn, Zap Mama, Stevie Wonder, Enya, Whitney Houston and many Film Music composers.
