Electronic Production Details: Schaltkreis Wassermann was a pioneer group of electronic music.

Founded in 1979 by Stella PJ Wassermann (who still work together with several projects) Schaltkreis

Wassermann featured a minimalistic approach that was dictated by the available means: * 1 ARP 2600

Syntheseizer, * 1 ARP Avatar guitar synthesizer * 1 Roland 100M modular synthesizer * and 1 Sequential

Circuits Prophet V synthesizer, all kept together by the Roland MicroComposer MC4 that was capable of playing four simultaneous monophonic synths. Tape recording was done with a TEAC 4track and later with an Otari 8track tape machine. It was a great and very psychedelic time. Stella PJ spent days, weeks and months in their studio exploring sound and consciousness resulting in PSYCHOTRON a ground breaking album in 1981 showcasing a lot of what was to become mainstream in electronic music and then some. PSYCHOTRON was sold all over the world as a vinyl album and made it to numer 7 of the British synthesizer charts in "Melody Maker". Check out the sounds.
