The Boston Symphony Orchestra, conducted James Levine - live at Symphony Hall in Boston, Massachusetts. 4 MP3 Songs in this album (82:45) ! Related styles: CLASSICAL: Symphony, CLASSICAL: Orchestral People who are interested in London Symphony Orchestra should consider this download. Details: James Levine is known for having a strong command and awareness of the overlying architecture of large musical works while retaining all of the shimmer and subtlety of the details, and he does just that in this live recording of Mahlers tragic Sixth Symphony. The live performances of this work from which this album is drawn, along with Levines other Mahler performances with the BSO, are wildly considered some of the most exciting performances by the orchestra in recent years.
