Details: BLACK BROWN STONE Jimmy Carl Black Steven De bruyn Jos Steen A download-only release! When Frank Zappas former Mothers Of Invention drummer Jimmy Carl Black joined up with Belgian blues guitarist/vocalist Jos Steen and harmonica master Steven De bruyn to do a radio recording session, they really went all out. Recorded on December 4, 2006 at VRT's "Radio Toots," Brussels, Belgium for Zjakki Willems' "Cucamonga" program, Black Brown Stone is an uncompromising collection of blues and experimentation. Jos Steen brought many of his compositions to the table, and the trio covered Muddy Waters Rollin And Tumblin, Frank Zappas Willie The Pimp and The Beatles Yer Blues. Also included is Jos song dedicated to Jimmy Carl Black: Sad Glad (Song For Jimmy). Here are a few translations for Jos Steens experimental numbers: Zomerwater And Avonbrood (Summer Water And Evening Bread), Les Pierres Ont Des Oreilles Pour Manger l'Heure Exacte (The Stones Have Ears To Eat The Exact Time), and Moeilijkheden (Difficulty). And now, the lineup: Jimmy Carl Black: drums Steven De bruyn: harmonicas Jos Steen: vocals, electric guitar, piano Black Brown Stone is one of the late Jimmy Carl Blacks final triumphs. Sound engineer: Raf De Clercq Producer: Christophe Verbiest Executive producer: Zjakki Willems
