Details: Parris Bowens, a Philadelphia native had an early start as a musician/singer. He started out playing at the age of eleven at his father's church. By the age of fifteen, Parris was directing groups and choirs. When he turned eighteen, he had a divine encounter with his musical mentor, gospel artist, Tye Tribbett. And for nine years Parris has traveled as Tye Tribbett's main keyboard player. Parris has also played on many albums and wrote and produced for many artists in his career. Some of the artists include Tye Tribbett, Floetry, Brandy, Musiq Soulchild, Gerald Levert, Eric Roberson, Carl Thomas, Vivian Greene, and many others. Now Parris sets out to make an instrumental project using all of his experience to bring about joy in the life of his listeners through 'A Digital Flow'. Parris is a happily married man of 4 and a half years and he and his wife are enjoying their new baby boy in Maryland. Searches:parris bowens
