Details: Ty Reynolds and his band are breathing new life into a timeless and classic sound. With saxophones, trumpets, cellos, violins, and wurlitzers lining the perimeter of his music, Tys soulful, blues-inspired guitar and piano playing grounds each song with melodies that will stick in your head for weeks. Whether you catch yourself rocking out in your car to Follow You or shedding a silent tear while listening to Recover Me on your iPod, Tys music will connect with you in the way music was meant to. Having moved to Atlanta from his roots in Portland, OR to launch his music career, Ty can be found at numerous popular venues throughout the Southeast playing a unique mix of covers and original music 5 nights a week. Whether rocking the Rock Boat with the likes of David Ryan Harris and Sister Hazel or playing a variety of clubs like Smiths Olde Bar, Ty's performances can only be described as riveting. Experiencing Tys live show is not just listening to music, it is meeting Ty himself and connecting with someone who will feel like your best friend immediately. With the recent release of his new original album "4 am Somewhere" recorded at Kung Fu Bakery in Portland, OR (Pink Martini, The Decemberists) with Tim Ellis (Young Immortals) and Dean Baskerville (Everclear, Sheryl Crow) , Ty is poised to take on the independent rock scene by storm. Ty has shared the stage with: David Ryan Harris, Ryan Newell (Sister Hazel), Michael Tolcher, John Hopkins (Zac Brown Band), Clay Cook (John Mayer, Marshall Tucker Band), Marcus Petruska (Corey Smith), Zac Hanson (Hanson), Matt Mangano (Aslyn, John Mayer), Dave Anthony (Ike, Michelle Malone, Sonia Leigh), Sam Thacker, Tim Ellis, Francisco Vidal, and Ben Deignan.
