This is a 1948 recording made in St Marks Church, North a Audley Street, London on the Norman and Beard organ built in 1915. It was doubled in size by Rushworth and Dreaper in 1930 and became one of their finest instruments. St Marks fell into disuse in 1974 but the organ was rebuilt with minor changes in Holy Trinity, Brompton in 1980 by Percy Daniel & Co.
