Wouldn't you like to celebrate the holidays with your family and friends without feeling like a Scrooge? Maybe you're just exhausted and out of ideas. Have you felt like you just didn't have anything to offer to your family for the holidays? Or maybe you've wondered if you're missing out on a tradition that your children might love? You don't have to worry about a thing; this eBook has you covered. But where do I even begin? Even if you didn't have a lot of Christmas traditions when you were growing up, I can help you create new ones. In this book, you'll learn about: 1. Getting the kids involved 2. The kids and Santa Claus 3. Infants to sixteen year olds - how to involve everyone 4. Bead Christmas tree ornaments 5. Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer 6. Gingerbread houses 7. Wait...there's more! It seems that Christmas has become more and more about how much money you spend, but does it need to be? More families need to punch pennies than ever, so I've assembled some easy and inexpensive ways to decorate and make gifts for others. Learn about: 1. Making candles - beeswax, gel, etc. 2. Making hook rugs 3. Aromatherapy crafts 4. Stamped Christmas cards and wrapping paper Even if you don't have a lot of time, you can use the tips found in "The Christmas Companion: Let's Rejoice and Make It Unforgettable!" to ensure that all your holly days are bright. But wait...what about entertaining others? Many of us open our homes to friends and family during the holidays, but it can be difficult to come up with fun and exciting party ideas. In this eBook, you will find unique ideas for: 1. Office parties 2. Family get togethers 3. Themed parties 4. Making room for guests 5. Stress relief These ideas will help you make the most of every gathering without resorting to ordinary ideas and Christmas themes. If you order a copy of "The Christmas Companion: Let's Rejoice and Make It Unforgettable!" now, I will include my special report entitled, "Tips and Tricks to Lower Your Expenses for Christmas." This 12 page report includes: 1. Planning your budget 2. How to make decorations and ornaments 3. Where you need to shop for the best prices 4. More handmade gift ideas 5.
