How could Detective Fred Barnes, a veteran of the NYPD for 15 years, ever have known that the murder of a seemingly innocuous bartender could alter the lives some of New York's wealthy elite, involve the Italian Mafia, the FBI, and even touch the President of the United States? How could he ever prepare himself for encountering the irrepressible, unpredictable, and beautiful Jessica Hall, Attorney at Law? Having survived two conspiracies and several attempts on her life in recent years, Jessica Hall enters this venue unaware that a deadly adversary still lurks in the shadows. Along with her personal bodyguard and chief investigator Abdul Franklin and computer whiz Keith Forchet, they discover this conspiracy, which they must now unravel and themselves survive the death threats and beatings that have been inflicted upon their witnesses. Accepting her first case as a private attorney, dedicated to assisting those who cannot get competent representation otherwise, Jessica uses all her resources and the computer data base left to her by her father and ex-CIA operative Judge Luther T. Hall. Calling in favors from people whose lives were saved changed or rehabilitated by her late father and herself, as an ex-Attorney General of the United States, Jessica attempts to solve the murder rather than just prove her client innocent. In her mind, Reasonable Doubt is not enough. If you have encountered Jeffrey J. Halperin's work before, you know that this will be a fast-paced story that will take twists and turns that are unexpected. You will fall in love with some of the characters and will detest others. Either way you will be affected and get involved with them. This is the third novel in the series of adventures with Jessica Hall with more to come in the future. Enjoy the book.
