Jessica Hall, an Assistant U.S. Attorney in Orlando, Florida is assigned to the murder of a specialized call girl. She is teamed with seasoned police detective, George Blasell. With the assistance of Jessica's mysterious guardian, the contacts of her adopted father Judge Luther T. Hall an ex-CIA operative, they must unravel a deviously contrived conspiracy that threatens to compromise the office of the President of the United States and our country's economic stability. The Italian and Russian Mafia force this young, attractive Attorney to adapt to circumstances of a World, where violence is Commonplace. Sex is used as a tool for blackmail and falling in love can lead to death. Her experiences compel her to redefine her own purpose in this life. If this is your first encounter with Jeffrey J Halperin you will find his style of writing is unique and different from anything you have ever read. He maintains a fast pace to his books that compels you to read on. His penchant for being unpredictable leads his reader into one predicament after another, never knowing who will survive. Two sequels have already been written.
