For companies making initial plans to export, or export to new areas, considerable advice and assistance are available at little or no cost. It is easy, through lack of experience, to overestimate the problems involved in exporting or to get embroiled in difficulties that can be avoided. For these and other good reasons, it is important to get the right information and assistance from the beginning. Formulating an export strategy based on good information and proper assessment increases the chances that the best options will be chosen, that resources will be used effectively, and that efforts will be carried through to completion. Our system comes complete, providing information regarding selling overseas, export strategy, making contacts, market research, export regulations, methods of payment, methods of exporting, pricing, quotations & terms, financing export transactions documentation, shipping & logistics and much more valuable Export information.
